Community Chalk Art Contest - July 17 & 18

Join All Fired Up! for its annual Community Chalk Art Contest around the historic district of Medina. This is a fun and creative event for all ages and abilities. First, call All Fired Up! at 330-723-1112 to be assigned your location and square number. Then, you can create your artwork anytime Thursday, July 17th starting at 10:30 am until Friday at 6 pm. You must bring your own chalk and it must be regular sidewalk chalk that washes off easily in your assigned square. There are four age categories, including one for adults. A winner will be awarded for each age category.

Water Main Improvement Project to Impact Traffic and Parking

For the week of July 7, installation continues on South Elmwood Avenue between West Liberty and West Washington Street. When completed on South Elmwood Avenue, the contractor will begin testing the newly installed water main on West Liberty Street and South Elmwood Avenue. After testing, the water service will be transferred to the new water main. Affected businesses and residents will be notified prior to having their water services transferred.
